

Nellie Navidi

Leader in Family Immigration

Nellie manages the firm's family immigration practice area. Nellie has practiced immigration law for over a decade. Although she focuses primarily on family-based immigration and naturalization cases, she is experienced in all areas of immigration, including employment-based immigration and represented many Fortune 500 clients. She has worked as an attorney in multiple settings, including for the U.S. Government, Non-Profit Organization, large law firms, and her own immigration practice, giving her a comprehensive perspective and a diverse client base in immigration law.

Passionately Helping Families Stay Together

Ms. Navidi focuses on the individual needs of each client. She understands that no two cases are alike. She dedicates the time to understand the issues affecting each client, as well as explaining very complicated immigration issues and the process to clients so they can understand and be fully informed. Nellie has a genuine concern and understanding of how much may be at stake after her family experienced corruption in a totalitarian regime. She immigrated to the U.S. at a young age and she witnessed firsthand how impactful immigration laws can be on a person going through a cultural and language change and is passionate about keeping the family unity for her clients. She provides compassion and dedication from start to finish for each of her clients to make sure someone fights for their security.
