

Luisa A. Enriquez

A Friendly Face for Your Family Immigration Needs

Luisa A. Enriquez manages the firm's family immigration practice area. She has worked in immigration law for over a decade. While she focuses primarily on family-based immigration and naturalization cases, she is experienced in all areas of immigration, including employment-based matters. She has worked in a legal office in multiple settings, including the United Nations, the U.S. Government, a non-profit organization, and in both large and small law firms. Prior to joining Weinstock, Luisa was Managing Attorney of Immigration Services at the Lawrenceville office of the Latin American Association, where she assisted pro-bono and lower income individuals and families.

A Dedicated Professional Passionate about Her Clients

Luisa is devoted to the individual needs of each client and understands that no two cases are alike. She guides each client through complex legal issues at every step of their immigration process with expertise, wisdom and compassion. Luisa comprehends how much may be at stake for all immigrants and their family. She has witnessed how impactful immigration laws can be on a person going through cultural and language changes. She is determined to keep families united and to fight for all her clients' security in America even when no one else would.
